

ERASMO 2001

89 Rating

“Not content to rest on his Tuscan laurels, Count Francesco Marone Cinzano has spent the last nine years living in Chile, where he has established a new wine estate in that country’s Maule Valley. The first releases, a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc called “Erasmus”, is new to the U.S.

«A very modern tasting wine, from vines still in their infancy. Jammy and forward, with intense balckberry and vanilla components, yet also a sense of firm structure, to back them up»
